Yahira Caro

Founder,
Integrated Legal Solutions PSC

To this day, those who know Yahira Caro's professional trajectory can attest to her perseverance, tenacity, leadership and ever-present smile. This journalist-editor turned lawyer went on to found the boutique law firm Integrated Legal Solutions PSC (ILS). Now approaching her third year in business for herself, Caro is continuing the rapid expansion of her firm. While ILS continues to handle most traditional aspects of legal work, such as general corporate work, contractual negotiations, small-business counseling, estate administration and commercial litigation, Caro has also expanded ILS' scope to include legal assistance for tourism and residential real-estate developments and such cutting-edge fields as renewable-energy and biotechnology ventures.

"Caro is a very talented attorney, not to mention that her reliability and work ethic are above par. There is no doubt she will be very successful in her professional endeavors."
